

This Summer... on the Hawaiian Island of Moloka'i...

Explore and cultivate your authentic feminine power and leadership for a changing world.

Lisa Fitzhugh (artscorps.org), Lauren Atkinson (artscorps.org), Sarah MacLean Bicknell (myenthios.com) and Claire Johnson (zyqigong.org) have organized a week's retreat—for the body and the spirit.

We are hosting eight other dynamic women to co-create new ways of leading for ourselves, our communities and our organizations in the 21st century. We will dream, incubate and explore through shamanic dreamwork, qigong and creative practice with the support of the island's spaciousness, beauty and fertility. Join us.

Dates: July 8-15th, 2010. Maximum of 8 guests.

Hale Maluhia (<http://molokai-beachhouse.com/>) on Moloka'i's lush eastside will be our gathering place. Accommodations in adjacent houses along Puko'o beach

$2,300 per person

All your needs will be provided for including:

- separate room for each guest in beachside home for 7 nights
- fabulous and exotic food
- on-island transportation
- (does not include airfare to and from Molokai)

To reserve your spot, send a $500 deposit payable to Lisa Fitzhugh by March 15th, 2010. For payment details and more information, contact: Lisa Fitzhugh, lisa@ee-mail.com, 206-910-4458
